

Adam McFadden to Go to Washington

Quad A Executive Director Adam McFadden has been invited to attend a May, 2010 summit in Washington, D.C. regarding the importance of after school programs.

Mr. McFadden will highlight the Quad A for Kids program, its successes, and ask for the resources to replicate the program across the District and country. Mr. McFadden will also be able to talk about the obstacles to avoid in building a program and how the Rochester Quad A for Kids program evolved over time with measurable results.

Look for further information and the events of the summit here in May.